Another Pioneer Answers the Call

Another of Nevada's pioneers passed away when Mrs. Virginia Spurgeon died last Saturday evening. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., on Jan. 1, 1844, she came to Nevada in 1859, fifty-five years ago. She was the widow of James W. Spurgeon, who died in this city in 1903. She leaves behind four daughters and a son, and two grandsons—Mrs. M. G. Cecil of Carson, Mrs. Geo. Johnstone of Yerington, Mrs. Geo. Freyer of Sacramento, Mrs. W. Bertram Hill of Yerington and William Spurgeon of Sacramento are her children and Clyde Heidenger and George Freyer, grandsons.

While Mrs. Spurgeon suffered occasional attacks of illness during the past few years, and although she has not been well all this summer, she was not confined to her bed till the middle of September. Since then she has received constant care, and has cheered all those who tended her by her patient and happy spirit in spite of her suffering. A week ago she began to fail rapidly and passed away shortly after 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Thus one by one the brave spirits of the early days go to the long rest, and leave a blessed memory behind of a life well spent. Mrs. Spurgeon has many friends who will mourn her loss and who offer their deepest sympathy to the members of the family.

The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. Cecil at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. L. B. Thomas, rector of the Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Spurgeon was a faithful communicant, will conduct the service.

Men of Nevada LOOK!

WHITE STATES FULL SUFFRAGE
SHADED STATES PARTIAL SUFFRAGE
DARK STATES NO SUFFRAGE

Ours is the only state in the great west where women are not politically free.

The fault is not yours. This is your first opportunity to express your opinion.

For the first time in Nevada's history you will have a chance to set your women right in the eyes of the world.

Put us on the free list of American citizenship. Declare us the EQUALS of the women across the border in California, Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Arizona.

Go to the polls on November 3 and blot the black spot off the map.

Vote YES on the suffrage amendment.

The Appeal reaches the homes Mr. Advertiser.
